

February 20, 1969

George Alberts Sr.

George Alberts Sr., 82, died at 8:30 p. m., Saturday, at the Protestant Lutheran Church. He was born Feb. 11, at the Marshall County home in Britton.

Rev. Donald Nelson officiated and the service was held at the Groton cemetery.

First pall bearers were Arthur Wm. Wood, Ervin Ulrich, August Frank Jensen, Max Hinrichs, and Lars Larson, Deputy pall bearers were Dale Hosley, Earl Emery Sippel, Ivan Thompson, and John Sieh.

Music was provided by Rodney Barnes, who sang "Face to Face With Me" and "Abide With Me," accompanied by Mrs. Kenneth Alberts at the piano.

Alberts was born March 7, 1886, in Madison County, Neb., and was married to Alma Yelkin at Fall City, Minn., March 21, 1907. He had been a resident of the Putney area since 1926. Survivors include five sons, Jesse, Earl, Clarence, Spirit Lake, Iowa; Harold, Raymond and George Jr., all in Putney; three daughters, Mrs. Leona Putney, and Mrs. Stuart Manning and Mrs. Julius Kirschenman, both in Putney; 19 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren; and one brother, Albert, Humboldt, Neb.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Alma, and two sisters.

The funeral home was in charge of arrangements.